Are you an Employer and aware of current Employment Laws?

Speakers at the 2014 Workplace Forum include:

THE FAIR WORK OMBUDSMAN
JUDGE DOMINICA WHELAN, FEDERAL CIRCUIT COURT
DEPUTY PRESIDENT INGRID ASBURY, FAIR WORK COMMISSION
PAUL GOLDSBROUGH, OFFICE OF FAIR AND SAFE WORK QUEENSLAND
JOHN MERRELL, BARRISTER
MARK BUNCH, PARTNER AT AITKEN LEGAL

Topics to be covered include:

- Changes to workplace bullying and harassment law, the Fair Work Commission’s role and what employers should be doing when they receive a bullying complaint.
- Risks and issues with incorrectly engaging employees as contractors and learning from the mistakes of other employers.
- An employer’s rights and obligations in relation to employee leave requests including personal/carer’s leave, parental leave and flexible work requests.
- Recent changes to workers compensation legislation and how they will impact on employers.
- Regulating employee use of social media – What every employer needs to know.
- How to effectively engage in performance management of employees without exposing your business to claims.

The Workplace Forum will inform Employers of their obligations and potential risks under current Employment Laws. Hear it direct from those advocating and enforcing the laws.

SPECIAL only $399*
FOR BOOKINGS MADE BEFORE MARCH 7

Cost: $445* includes morning tea, lunch, afternoon tea and drinks at the end of the day, whilst enjoying some networking.

*Inclusive of GST

WORKPLACE FORUM
GOLD COAST CONVENTION & EXHIBITION CENTRE
21 MARCH 2014

Full program and registration form is available at www.aitkenlegal.com.au

The media sponsors for this event is: